

COURTLY MUSIC UNLIMITED

Invites you to an In-person

Recorder Workshop

Experience the joys of making music with others.

Saturday March 2 and Sunday March 3

A Retrospective of the Music of ANDREW CHARLTON

Andrew was a true Recorder Enthusiast in the 20th century.

A fine musician. He played, composed, arranged & taught music for recorder. March is the perfect month to resurrect his music beginning with his beautiful and challenging Celtic Fancies Suite. He loved the music of the British Isles and arranged many Irish, English and Scottish tunes.

Another winner is his jazzy triptych Pipe Dreams, Royal Flush & Commodious Rag composed for his recorder group the "Plumbers Union" of Edmonton, Alberta.

We will also play his arrangement of William Boyce's Symphony # 1 (18th cen.). And if time allows maybe a few of his arrangements of Popular Italian Melodies.
